Based upon the evidence presented, the Court finds that there is probable cause to believe the above named child is deprived pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 15-11-2(8)(A). The precipitating cause of removal of the child from the home was: _____

() The _____ County Department of Family and Children Services made reasonable efforts to preserve and reunify the family prior to the placement of the child in foster care, to prevent or eliminate the need for the removal of the child from his/her home, and to make it possible for the child to return safely home, to wit: _____

() Reasonable efforts by the _____ County Department of Family and Children Services to preserve and reunify the family prior to the placement of the child in foster care, to prevent or eliminate the need for the removal of the child from his/her home, and to make it possible for the child to return safely home were not required under O.C.G.A. Section 15-11-58(a)(4)(A-C) because: _____

() The _____ County Department of Family and Children Services failed to make reasonable efforts to preserve and reunify the family prior to the placement of the child in foster care, to prevent or eliminate the need for the removal of the child from his/her home, and to make it possible for the child to return safely home. The following efforts would have been reasonable to prevent or eliminate the need for removal: _____

() This is a private deprivation matter in which DFACS is not involved. The child is not placed in foster care. Reasonable efforts are not an issue.

Continuation in the home would be contrary to the welfare of the child and removal of the child from his/her home is in his/her best interest because _____
